

Grade School to Stage Musical

TRAINER — Pupils of Trainer Elementary School presented a musical program, "Do You Remember? Wednesday night in the school auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Rita DeNoia.

Opening the program was a duet by James Bardsley and Janet Stichter.

Gloria Borrero, Richard Krause, Moss had solo parts in the series of numbers presented by the 1st Grade pupils.

Second Grade soloist was Jeffrey Edge.

Third Grade pupils presented "Yankee Doodle Dandy" featuring James Bardsley, Terry Louth, Thomas Nasko, Ty Back, Fred Maher, Robert Spisak, Warren Gaines, Mickey McCall and Joseph Pilling.

"Mention My Name in Shebolgan" by the 4th Graders featured Lawrence Grantham and Russell Replogle in the solo roles. Soloist in the 5th Grade presentation was Armand Graham and Michael Daniels.

Arthur Graham was the solo in the 6th Grade presentation while Karen Byanck was featured in one of the numbers by the 7th Graders.

Other 7th Graders who had leading parts are Benjamin Chandler, Mickey McCall, Janice Eisele and Louise Schreffler.

Featured in the 8th Grade portion of the program was Marie Graham, Linda Regetto, Larr y Lorah, William Martin, Fred Maher and Thomas Nasko.

The settings were made under the supervision of Mrs. Aimee Dare while the stage crew includes John Collins, Richard Friere and Richard Giles.

The two-day May Day program will be concluded today with track and field events. Rain date for today's program is Friday.